SECTION C (10 Marks)

Answer Question six (6).

6. Read the following passage carefully and answer questions (i) – (v) by writing the answers in the spaces provided.

Amani lived in a small village in Nkalama District. One day, his goats wandered off and got lost, so Amani decided to look for them. He was worried because it was getting late, so he hurried to find them before getting dark. He asked his friends for help. They all searched the forest for the goats.

They searched through the tall grass, but they could not find the goats, so they decided to split up. Amani went towards the river. His friends checked near the big baobab tree. After walking for a while, Amani saw something moving by the river. He quietly went closer. He saw the goats eating grass by the riverbank!

Amani felt happy. He called his friends to tell them he had found the goats. They all met at the river, and together, they walked back to the village. Amani was grateful for his friends' help. He promised to always look after the goats more carefully from that day.

Questions

- (i) What happened after the goats wandered off?

- (ii) Why did Amani and his friends decide to split up in the forest?

- (iii) How did Amani feel after he saw the goats in the forest?

- (iv) What did Amani do after he saw the goats in the forest?

- (v) What did Amani promise after he saw the goats in the forest?
