Check your spelling when the sentence is read again.

Final Answer: Those are our teachers.

A(iv). Write dictation sentence 4.

Step 1: Listen to the whole sentence before writing, then separate the spoken words carefully.

Step 2: Begin with a capital letter, leave spaces between words, and finish with a full stop.
Check your spelling when the sentence is read again.

Final Answer: We caused the accident.

A(v). Write dictation sentence 5.

Step 1: Listen to the whole sentence before writing, then separate the spoken words carefully.

Step 2: Begin with a capital letter, leave spaces between words, and finish with a full stop. Check your spelling when the sentence is read again.

Final Answer: They are watching television.

Section Summary: Practise listening, word spacing, capital letters and punctuation. Ask someone to read each sentence aloud before you check it.

Section B: Vocabulary

B(i). My father flies aeroplanes. What is his occupation?

Step 1: A person trained to fly an aircraft is a pilot.

Step 2: Select the occupation, rather than a road driver or the name of a bird.

Final Answer: A. A pilot.

B(ii). What do we call a female parent?

Step 1: Identify the relationship to a child.

Step 2: The female parent is the mother; an aunt is a parent's sister.

Final Answer: C. Your mother.

B(iii). He stole my car last night. What is he?

Step 1: Stealing means taking another person's property without permission.

Step 2: The person who steals is a thief.

Final Answer: A. A thief.

B(iv). Why does Hawa's young brother like sugar?

Step 1: The question asks about taste.

Step 2: Sugar tastes sweet; sweat is moisture from the skin.

Final Answer: B. Sweet.

B(v). Express 06:12 in words.

Step 1: Read the hour as six and the minutes as twelve.

Step 2: Twelve minutes after the hour is described as twelve minutes past six.

Final Answer: D. Twelve minutes past six o'clock.

Section Summary: Read the complete sentence. Check the exact meaning, relationship, occupation or collective noun before choosing its letter.

Section C: Grammar

C(i). She __ me yesterday. Choose visit, visited or visiting.

Step 1: Yesterday places the action in the past.

Step 2: Use the simple past form of visit.

Final Answer: Visited: She visited me yesterday.

C(ii). I think I left my pen in __ kitchen. Choose a, the or an.

Step 1: The sentence refers to a particular kitchen known to the speaker.

Step 2: Use the definite article.

Final Answer: The: I think I left my pen in the kitchen.

C(iii). How __ sugar does she want? Choose many, much or any.

Step 1: Sugar is treated as an uncountable noun here.

Step 2: Use how much for amounts; how many is for countable items.

Final Answer: Much: How much sugar does she want?

C(iv). I wake up __ 5.00 a.m. every morning. Choose at, in or on.

Step 1: 5.00 a.m. is an exact clock time.

Step 2: Use at before a specific time.

Final Answer: At: I wake up at 5.00 a.m. every morning.

C(v). An elephant is __ than a lion. Choose big, bigger or biggest.

Step 1: The sentence compares two animals and includes than.

Step 2: Use the comparative form, doubling the final consonant in big.

Final Answer: Bigger: An elephant is bigger than a lion.

Section Summary: Check the subject, time expression, noun type and any auxiliary verb before selecting the correct grammatical form.

Section D: Composition

D(i). Complete the first story blank: One day I was __ in the forest.

Step 1: Was requires an -ing form to describe an action in progress in the past.

Step 2: Choose the movement that fits being in a forest.

Final Answer: Walking.

D(ii). Complete: A snake __ me on my foot.

Step 1: The story is narrated in the past.

Step 2: The simple past of bite is bit.

Final Answer: Bit.

D(iii). Complete: I cried __ and my friends came.

Step 1: The blank describes how the narrator cried, so it needs an adverb.

Step 2: A loud cry would attract the friends' attention.

Final Answer: Loudly.

D(iv). Complete: They gave me __ and took me to hospital.

Step 1: Identify the immediate assistance provided before hospital treatment.

Step 2: That assistance is called first aid.

Final Answer: First aid.

D(v). Complete: The snake which had bitten me was very __.

Step 1: After very, this sentence needs an adjective describing the snake.

Step 2: The retyped word bank has poison, a noun. The official examiner report confirms the intended adjective poisonous.

Final Answer: Poisonous.

Study Tip: The original exam uses poisonous. Correct the transcription before practising; poison does not fit this sentence.

Section Summary: Use context and grammar together. Read the whole composition again to check that the completed ideas connect logically.

Section E: Comprehension

E(i). Who invited Mr. Hyena?

Step 1: Find the two hosts at the beginning of the passage.

Step 2: The birthday belonged to Mr. Elephant and the wedding to Mr. Lion.

Final Answer: Mr. Elephant and Mr. Lion invited Mr. Hyena.

E(ii). Which party did Mr. Hyena attend first?

Step 1: Locate the passage's first visit.

Step 2: He went to the wedding before trying the birthday celebration.

Final Answer: He first attended Mr. Lion's wedding party.

E(iii). What did he find when he reached the birthday party?

Step 1: Read what had happened before his arrival.

Step 2: The guests had already eaten.

Final Answer: He found that all the guests had finished eating.

E(iv). Why did he want to attend both parties?

Step 1: The passage directly states his motive.

Step 2: Relate his wish to eat at both celebrations to that motive.

Final Answer: He wanted to attend both parties because he was greedy.

E(v). What do we learn from the story?

Step 1: Hyena's attempt to obtain food at both parties left him with none.

Step 2: State a lesson connected to the outcome.

Final Answer: We should avoid greed and be content with what we have.

Study Tip: This is a model response. Another clearly explained lesson about avoiding greed can also answer the question.

Section Summary: Locate evidence in the passage, then answer in your own clear sentence. Support a moral or lesson with what happened in the story.
