A(v). Write dictation sentence 5.

Step 1: Listen to the whole sentence before writing, then separate the spoken words carefully.

Step 2: Begin with a capital letter, leave spaces between words, and finish with a full stop. Check your spelling when the sentence is read again.

Final Answer: Our grandfather walks slowly.

Section Summary: Practise listening, word spacing, capital letters and punctuation. Ask someone to read each sentence aloud before you check it.

Section B: Vocabulary

B(i). What do we call the son of my sister?

Step 1: A sister's child is a niece or nephew.

Step 2: A male child is a nephew.

Final Answer: C. My nephew.

B(ii). Choose the synonym of dislike.

Step 1: A synonym has a similar meaning and should fit the same grammatical role.

Step 2: Hate is a verb expressing a stronger dislike.

Final Answer: A. Hate.

B(iii). Which word means sad?

Step 1: Sad describes someone who does not feel happy.

Step 2: Unhappy matches that meaning.

Final Answer: D. Unhappy.

B(iv). My uncle attends and takes care of the sick in hospital. What is his occupation?

Step 1: The description focuses on nursing care of patients.

Step 2: In this question, the intended occupation is nurse.

Final Answer: A. A nurse.

Study Tip: This is the answer identified in NECTA's examiner report. Several medical professions care for patients, so read the specific role described.

B(v). Complete: The crops were attacked by a __ of locusts.

Step 1: The blank needs the collective noun for locusts.

Step 2: A large group of these insects is a swarm.

Final Answer: D. Swarm.

Section Summary: Read the complete sentence. Check the exact meaning, relationship, occupation or collective noun before choosing its letter.

Section C: Grammar

C(i). Do you __ any help? Choose need, needed or needing.

Step 1: The auxiliary do is followed by the base form of the main verb.

Step 2: Use need without an ending.

Final Answer: Need: Do you need any help?

C(ii). I __ to the market last Saturday. Choose go, gone or went.

Step 1: Last Saturday indicates a completed past action.

Step 2: The simple past of go is went.

Final Answer: Went: I went to the market last Saturday.

C(iii). Jumanne and Bakari are __ my sons. Choose all, both or either.

Step 1: The sentence names exactly two people.

Step 2: Both includes the two together; either refers to one of them.

Final Answer: Both: Jumanne and Bakari are both my sons.

C(iv). May I __ the window? Choose close, closing or closed.

Step 1: The modal verb may is followed by the base form.

Step 2: Choose close.

Final Answer: Close: May I close the window?

C(v). It is very __ to drive too fast. Choose danger, dangerous or dangerously.

Step 1: The blank describes driving too fast after it is very.

Step 2: Use an adjective, rather than a noun or adverb.

Final Answer: Dangerous: It is very dangerous to drive too fast.

Section Summary: Check the subject, time expression, noun type and any auxiliary verb before selecting the correct grammatical form.

Section D: Composition

D(i). Assign the order letter to (i): I brush my teeth and take a bath.

Step 1: Introduce Florian first, then describe waking up.

Step 2: Brushing and bathing follow waking, making this the third sentence.

Final Answer: C.

D(ii). Assign the order letter to (ii): After taking a bath, I eat my breakfast.

Step 1: The phrase after taking a bath places this after sentence (i).

Step 2: Breakfast is the fourth event in the completed sequence.

Final Answer: D.

D(iii). Confirm the given example (iii): My name is Florian.

Step 1: A self-introduction opens the account.

Step 2: It is the first sentence.

Final Answer: A.

D(iv). Assign the order letter to (iv): Thereafter, I put on my school uniform.

Step 1: Dressing follows breakfast and precedes leaving for school.

Step 2: It is the fifth sentence.

Final Answer: E.

Study Tip: The library's retyped paper says put on my breakfast. NECTA's examiner report gives school uniform; the order remains E.

D(v). Assign the order letter to (v): I wake up early in the morning.

Step 1: Waking begins the day's actions after the introduction.

Step 2: It precedes bathing and breakfast.

Final Answer: B.

D(vi). Assign the order letter to (vi): Then I take my bag and leave for school.

Step 1: Leaving happens after waking, washing, breakfast and dressing.

Step 2: This is the sixth and final sentence.

Final Answer: F.

Study Tip: Complete order: (iii), (v), (i), (ii), (iv), (vi).

Section Summary: Use context and grammar together. Read the whole composition again to check that the completed ideas connect logically.

Section E: Comprehension

E(i). What is the passage about?

Step 1: Identify the subject repeated throughout the passage.

Step 2: It describes wild animals, their features and their behaviour.

Final Answer: The passage is about wild animals and their behaviour.

E(ii). Which animal has beautiful black spots?

Step 1: Locate the animal described with spots.

Step 2: The passage assigns this feature to the cheetah.

Final Answer: The cheetah has beautiful black spots.

E(iii). How does a giraffe eat leaves on tall trees?

Step 1: Find the body part named in the giraffe's description.

Step 2: Its long neck helps it reach the leaves.

Final Answer: A giraffe uses its long neck to reach and eat leaves on tall trees.

E(iv). Why does the lion kill other animals?

Step 1: The printed question omits lion, but the passage identifies the animal.

Step 2: The passage gives obtaining food as the reason.

Final Answer: The lion kills other animals for food.

E(v). What do we learn from the behaviour of the zebra and the giraffe?

Step 1: In the passage, these animals are described as kind.

Step 2: Turn that description into a lesson about our behaviour.

Final Answer: We should be kind and gentle towards others.

Study Tip: Answer according to the passage. Observe wild animals safely; the story's description is not advice to touch them.

Section Summary: Locate evidence in the passage, then answer in your own clear sentence. Support a moral or lesson with what happened in the story.
