Section E: Comprehension

E(i). What is the story about?

Step 1: Identify the central event involving both animals.

Step 2: The hare and tortoise compete in a race.

Final Answer: The story is about a race between a hare and a tortoise.

E(ii). Where did the hare and tortoise live?

Step 1: Look at the opening location.

Step 2: Both animals lived in a forest.

Final Answer: They lived in a forest.

E(iii). How did the tortoise run in the race?

Step 1: The passage describes its pace and its continued effort.

Step 2: Include both slowness and steadiness.

Final Answer: The tortoise ran slowly but steadily.

E(iv). Why did the hare fail to win?

Step 1: The hare stopped to eat and then slept, believing its lead was safe.

Step 2: The tortoise kept moving and reached the finish first.

Final Answer: The hare failed to win because it became overconfident and slept during the race.

E(v). What do we learn from the story?

Step 1: The tortoise's consistent effort overcame the hare's careless confidence.

Step 2: State a lesson supported by that contrast.

Final Answer: We should work steadily, persevere and avoid overconfidence.

Study Tip: This is a model response. A relevant lesson about patience or consistent effort is also acceptable.

Section Summary: Locate evidence in the passage, then answer in your own clear sentence. Support a moral or lesson with what happened in the story.
