This library PDF is the 2024 sample paper, as stated on its cover. The listening passage is not included in the pupil's paper; its answers were checked against the accompanying TETEA sample solutions.

Section A — Listening

1(i). Who took Uadilifu to hospital?

Step 1: Identify the person who accompanied the patient, rather than the hospital staff.

Step 2: The checked listening answers identify Uadilifu's mother.

Final Answer: A — His mother.

1(ii). What happened to the doctor's family after he was jailed?

Step 1: Focus on the family's circumstances after the imprisonment.

Step 2: The consequence was difficulty obtaining everyday necessities, rather than the family also being imprisoned.

Final Answer: E — They lacked basic necessities.

1(iii). What did the doctor demand before treating Uadilifu?

Step 1: Distinguish a lawful salary from an unofficial payment demanded for a service.

Step 2: The doctor was asking for an unlawful payment.

Final Answer: D — A bribe.

1(iv). Why did the doctor delay attending to Uadilifu?

Step 1: Connect the delay with the demand described in the preceding item.

Step 2: Treatment was withheld until an unofficial payment was made.

Final Answer: A — He wanted a bribe.

1(v). Why is corruption harmful?

Step 1: Consider how demanding money affects access to essential public services.

Step 2: A person who cannot make the unofficial payment may be refused a service they are entitled to receive.

Final Answer: B — It denies people their basic rights.

Section Summary: Listen for who, what happened and why. Keep actions, motives and consequences separate.

Section A — Grammar

2(i). The boys saw a snake and ran ___ a nearby room.

Step 1: The sentence describes movement from outside to inside.

Step 2: Use the preposition into for entry into an enclosed place.

Final Answer: E — into.

2(ii). Here is the book ___ was written by Mwalimu J. K. Nyerere.

Step 1: The relative pronoun refers to the thing book.

Step 2: Which can introduce a clause describing a thing.

Final Answer: A — which.

2(iii). Upendo prefers singing ___ playing netball.

Step 1: Use the pattern prefer one activity to another.

Step 2: Both activities are expressed with -ing forms.

Final Answer: C — to.

2(iv). The lost ball belongs to me: The lost ball is ___.

Step 1: The answer stands alone after is, without a following noun.

Step 2: Use the possessive pronoun mine; my must be followed by a noun.

Final Answer: D — mine.

2(v). Add a confirmation tag to: You all ate a lot yesterday.

Step 1: Ate is a positive simple-past verb, so use the negative auxiliary didn't.

Step 2: Keep the same subject pronoun you.

Final Answer: C — didn't you?

Section Summary: Choose pronouns by what they replace, prepositions by meaning, and question tags by tense and subject.

Section A — Vocabulary

3(i). My neighbour's laziness caused him to live a ___ life.

Step 1: Choose an adjective to describe life.

Step 2: The negative consequence of laziness fits miserable, meaning unhappy or very uncomfortable.

Final Answer: miserable.

3(ii). They thought drinking would make them feel ___, until they became unhealthy.

Step 1: The first part states their expectation; the later part contrasts with it.

Step 2: Good describes the positive feeling they expected.

Final Answer: good.

3(iii). Neema grows maize on a ten-acre farm, and the ___ improved yearly.

Step 1: Look for the noun naming crops collected from farming.

Step 2: Harvest is the crop yield gathered from the farm.

Final Answer: harvest.

3(iv). Bahati wept because she could not control her own ___.

Step 1: A possessive adjective such as her own needs a noun after it.

Step 2: Misfortune means bad luck or an unfortunate event and explains her distress.

Final Answer: misfortune.

3(v). I ___ that I would never lie again. Choose from the printed word bank.

Step 1: A finite past-tense verb is required before that.

Step 2: Admitted is the available past-tense reporting verb; the other options do not fit this structure.

Final Answer: admitted.

Study Tip: Promised would be more natural for a commitment about future behaviour, but it is not in the supplied word bank.

Section Summary: Check meaning and grammatical function before selecting from a word bank.

Section A — Places

4(i). Match the place where sick people receive medical treatment.

Step 1: Identify the service: care and treatment for ill people.

Step 2: A hospital supplies that service.

Final Answer: G — Hospital.

4(ii). Match the place where pupils receive education.

Step 1: Identify the activity as organised teaching and learning.

Step 2: That place is a school.

Final Answer: D — School.

4(iii). Match a place where one buys a meal.

Step 1: A prepared meal is bought and served in a restaurant.

Step 2: Choose the option for that eating place.

Final Answer: B — Restaurant.

4(iv). Match the place for reading and borrowing books.

Step 1: The important clue is borrowing books.

Step 2: A library lends books and provides reading space.

Final Answer: F — Library.

4(v). Match the place where milk is sold.

Step 1: A dairy supplies milk and dairy products.

Step 2: Select dairy rather than unrelated institutions such as a bank or mint.

Final Answer: A — Dairy.

Section Summary: Match each service to the institution that provides it.

Section B — Verb forms

5(i). The Director is (provide) ___ the reward to his employees.

Step 1: Is introduces the present continuous: is + verb-ing.

Step 2: Remove the final e from provide, then add -ing.

Final Answer: providing.

5(ii). If my mother (wake up) ___ early, she will catch the bus.

Step 1: A first conditional uses present simple after if and will in the main clause.

Step 2: Mother is third-person singular, so wake becomes wakes.

Final Answer: wakes up.

5(iii). Have Bahati and Jema (speak) ___ to their teacher yet?

Step 1: Have introduces the present perfect, which requires a past participle.

Step 2: The forms are speak, spoke, spoken.

Final Answer: spoken.

5(iv). My children rarely (play) ___ with their toys.

Step 1: Rarely describes a habit, so use present simple.

Step 2: Children is plural: use the base form play, without -s.

Final Answer: play.

5(v). He checked the tube by (put) ___ it into water.

Step 1: After the preposition by, use the -ing form.

Step 2: Double the final t in put before adding -ing.

Final Answer: putting.

Section Summary: Use present continuous after is, the present simple after if in a first conditional, and a participle after have.

Section B — Poetry

6(i). What is the poem about?

Step 1: Notice the repeated question about what the speaker wants to do in life.

Step 2: Each stanza names a future profession and explains its benefit to other people.

Final Answer: It is about career ambitions and serving the community.

6(ii). Why does the speaker want to become a lawyer?

Step 1: Read the first stanza's reasons for choosing law.

Step 2: The speaker connects that profession with children who have suffered abuse and people's rights.

Final Answer: To help abused children and defend people's rights.

6(iii). What kind of person is the speaker?

Step 1: Use the motives in all three stanzas as evidence.

Step 2: The speaker puts other people's welfare, protection and health first.

Final Answer: A caring, responsible and ambitious person.

Study Tip: Support character descriptions with actions or ideas from the poem.

6(iv). Why does the speaker ask, If not me, who else?

Step 1: This repeated rhetorical question does not request a person's name.

Step 2: It emphasises that the speaker should take personal responsibility rather than wait for someone else.

Final Answer: To express personal responsibility and readiness to help others.

6(v). Suggest a suitable title.

Step 1: Choose a short title covering the shared idea across all three careers.

Step 2: A title about future ambitions fits the whole poem.

Final Answer: My Career Ambitions.

Study Tip: Other relevant titles, such as Serving My Community, can also earn credit.

Section Summary: Use the speaker's repeated ideas and stated motives to support interpretations. Suitable alternative wording is acceptable.

Section C — Identity card

7(i). Fill in the pupil's name on Misongo's identity card.

Step 1: Find the full name in the opening sentence.

Step 2: Copy both names with initial capital letters.

Final Answer: PUPIL'S NAME: Misongo Masata.

7(ii). Fill in the school.

Step 1: Find the institution named in the description.

Step 2: Write its full name rather than shortening it to Upepo.

Final Answer: SCHOOL: Upepo Primary School.

7(iii). Fill in the class.

Step 1: Read the class stated in the question.

Step 2: Use the stated information even though the dates and class in the sample are unusual.

Final Answer: CLASS: Standard Five.

7(iv). Fill in the date of birth.

Step 1: Select the birth date, not the school entry date.

Step 2: Write the day, month and year clearly.

Final Answer: DATE OF BIRTH: 22 May 2018.

7(v). Fill in the school entry date.

Step 1: Find the date describing his first day at school.

Step 2: Keep it separate from the birth date.

Final Answer: SCHOOL ENTRY DATE: 8 January 2024.

Section Summary: Copy the given facts into the correct fields. Do not invent different dates to repair the sample's unusual chronology.
